Subject: Vacancy: Dean of Health Sciences

The job announcement for the Dean of Health Sciences has been posted: link. The deadline to apply is January 5, 2026, by 11:59 p.m.

The Dean of Health Sciences serves as a key academic leader responsible for advancing a comprehensive vision for high-quality, student-centered health sciences education across the College. This role provides strategic direction for all Health Sciences programs, ensuring they remain academically rigorous, innovative, and responsive to the changing needs of students, employers, and the broader community.

The Dean will work closely with program directors to lead program development, uphold accreditation and regulatory standards, and support faculty excellence through effective recruitment, mentoring, and professional growth. A central aspect of this role is cultivating strong partnerships with clinical affiliates, industry leaders, community agencies, and transfer institutions to enhance experiential learning, workforce preparation, and pathways for continued education.

This leader will encourage cross-disciplinary collaboration, promote evidence-based decision-making, and foster an environment where innovation, continuous improvement, and student success thrive. The College seeks a collaborative, forward-thinking administrator dedicated to equity, inclusion, and the success of a diverse student body, and who can effectively advance the mission of the Health Sciences area in a dynamic and evolving healthcare landscape.
